

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

For three-line advertisement one day, five cents; one week, $1.00. Each additional line one day, five cents; one week, $1.00.

WANTED

WANTED—A small house or a few rooms for a gentleman and wife. Address H. M. Clark, 101 South Main street.

WANTED—A boy for general work and an assistant painter at Clark's photographic gallery, No. 115 E. Main St., Springfield.

WANTED—Canvasers for a good selling article. Call at J. B. McDonald's notion store, 31 South Market.

WANTED—To trade a first-class organ for a good work of driving horse. Call on J. Hamilton & Co., No. 9 E. Main street.

WANTED by a pushing man with a few thousand dollars, an interest in some paying enterprise. Wants to devote his whole attention, which will be serviceable in any branch of business. References exchanged. Address: Business, care of this office.

WANTED—Young ladies in city or country to work for us at their homes; fascinating employment; instructions to be given; $10.00 per week; no experience necessary. No canvassing, no peddling, no sample of work, no extra four cents in stamps. Please address Home Manufacturing Co., Boston, Mass. P. O. Box 418.

WANTED—An active man or woman in every county to sell our goods. Salary $25.00 month and expenses, or commission. No expenses in advance. Outfit free. For full particulars address, Standard Silver Ware, Boston, Mass.

WANTED—A first-class cook. Inquire of Mr. John H. Thomas, No. 32 East High street.

WANTED—$1000 on mortgage. Address: Brown Bros., Newburyport, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—Young ladies to buy our $2.50 kid shoe, either shoe men sell them. At E. Lynch, 31 West Main.

WANTED—Young men to call and see our $1.50 kid shoe, either shoe men sell them. At E. Lynch, 31 West Main.

WANTED—Men and women to start a new business at their homes; no canvassing, no peddling, no sample of work, no extra four cents in stamps. Send for $10.00 and a package of material to commence. Address: American Supply Co., Albany, N. Y.

FOR RENT—Six room house, good well and cistern. Inquire of H. Clark, Northern avenue, first house east of Limestone street.

FOR RENT—Brick house of seven rooms on Maple avenue. Inquire of H. Clark, Northern avenue, first house east of Limestone street.

FOR RENT—Two elegant front rooms, with grate and wood stove, both furnished. Inquire at No. 4 North Market.

FOR RENT—At 25 cents per month, a fine large brick house of 10 rooms in China. We sell a nice dress shoe for $2.50 that other dealers want $4.00. Lynch, 31 West Main.

FOR SALE—Household goods, including a first-class range and a new box mattress that cost $25 will sell for half price. Call at No. 136 S. Market St.

FOR SALE—A dwelling house on South Limestone street, one of the finest houses in the city. Address at Once Look Box 28, 21 West Main.

FOR SALE—Upright style, 9. Henry F. Miller, piano. Address at Once Look Box 28, 21 West Main.

FOR SALE—Fine family man, all second and a first-class driver, can be driven by any lady. Call on John Wren.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—Two houses and a lot, generally known as Fitch's Summer garden. Half of it will be sold, too. N. T. Fitch.

FOR SALE—Ladies' fine dress shop for 50. Other dealers sell them at $4. Lynch, 31 West Main.

LOST.

LOST—For collar, on Gilbert avenue, between Vine and Gallagher. Finder will be rewarded by leaving name at this office.

LOST—A diamond ring, set in three prongs. Finder will be rewarded by leaving name at this office.

LOST—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A stray dog, which strayed upon my premises Nov. 18th. Owner is willing to call and prove property.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. The finder returning same to me will receive reward.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

D. H. Ackerson went to Wyoming, O., this noon.

Edwin Shivel returned this morning from New York.

Charles Saylor, of New Carlisle, is in the city on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Toulmin, of St. Paul, are spending today in town.

Regular meeting of W. R. C. at their hall Friday, Nov. 20, at 3 p. m.

Get your seats for Dan Sully's "Corner Grocery." Black's next Saturday.

E. R. Fuller, of Philadelphia, representing the Clinton & Co. brush manufactory, is in the city.

The W. J. Scanlon troupe left on the 10:46 train for Dayton this morning, via Plain Handle.

Miss Cora Eldridge, of Urbana, is the guest of Mrs. Samuel Martin, of South Factory street.

Linnie Cochran, son of Mr. A. P. Cochran, of South Limestone street, is recovering from his recent severe illness.

A valuable horse belonging to Joseph Sack, of East Columbia street, died very suddenly this morning from an unknown disease.

Matthew Sargent afternoon at 2 p. m. at the Grand, for ladies and children. Baker & Farrow will play their latest success—A Soap Bubble.

Friday evening, at the First Presbyterian church, you can get the finest supper for 50 cents you have had lately. Go, and take all your friends.

Mrs. Bernard, a lady living in this city, died in Bellefontaine yesterday, to which place she had gone to visit her daughter. The notice of the funeral will be given later.

A new automatic car, patented by Messrs. Moore and Frazer, is being tested in the East street yards this afternoon by the L. B. & W. people. It is highly spoken of.

Superintendent W. H. Van Tassel, of the L. B. & W., accompanied by his wife and son, returned last evening from Hot Springs, Arkansas, much improved in health.

Dani, Alt holds a big turkey shooting match next Tuesday at his farm four miles southeast of the city. A buck leaves Sack's gun store at 8:30 a. m. Fare round trip is 35 cents.

Christmas Presents. The ladies have prepared many useful and beautiful articles, suitable for holiday gifts, which will be sold at moderate prices, at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening.

The following are among the guests at the Arcade today: C. C. Reed, of New York; E. M. Rutledge, of Kenton, O.; E. G. Beach, of Chicago; J. B. Dray, of Toledo, and C. J. Supple, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hall and Dugan were yesterday appointed members of the board of pension examiners for this district, by the commission of pensions. The third member of the board is Dr. Elliott Myers, appointed a couple of months ago.

The management of the Grand Opera House announce that the prices of admission to the Minnie Madden performance, Thanksgiving night, will be 75, 50 and 25c, with no extra for reserved seats. The matinee prices will be 50c for adults and 25c for children.

Baker & Farrow will play their latest success, "A Soap Bubble," at the Grand tomorrow and Saturday, with a grand matinee Saturday afternoon for the ladies and children. This is one of the most laughable plays on the road, and no doubt will receive a good patronage while here.

The following are the names of those who desire to enter the polo club at the skating academy: Jim Todd, Will Hall, Ed. Jones, Harry Fitzman, Mr. Grapevine, Chas. Buckley and Frank Hutchins. All others who desire to form a club will please leave their names with any of the managers.

Percy Craig, the talented young artist, is working on a crayon sketch of the gas well. Among many well executed works he has recently finished is a fine crayon portrait of Mrs. Lida Smith, a very beautiful Columbian lady. The picture will be placed on exhibition at Williams' art store, and also at Columbus.

Young men! Attention! The young ladies all like flowers and candy. For moderate prices, you can get beautiful flowers, and the finest candy made, from Huyler's, of New York, and Gunthers, of Chicago, at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening. Go to get a supply of all, and make your lady friends happy.

One of the strongest evidences of more prosperous times among the laboring classes is the fact that the demand for better houses in which to live by this class is greater than it has been for a year. Those who rent are moving out of poor houses into better ones, and those who own their houses are repairing them where needed.

I. B. Trout, of Bethel school, Bethel township, has been compelled to abandon the school room on account of ill health. He resigned last week, and the school has been closed since last Friday. Mr. Trout holds a first-class certificate and has been recognized as one of the county's most successful teachers. For these reasons his community are very sorry to lose his services, and his co-laborers in the educational field hope that he may be speedily restored to good health.

Inquest Over Robert's Body.

At the coroner's inquest last evening five persons were examined, together with Drs. Baldwin and Dunlap. All the evidence went to show that the deceased had come to his death by attempting to slide a rail on the train. And that in getting off the train at Sycamore street, had lost his hold and slipping fell under the wheels. The coroner's verdict is in accordance with the evidence.

Scandal Sheet.

This morning August Oswald, the East Main street butcher, turned over to Oliver Wilson a pair of shoes, which he thinks were undoubtedly stolen. A young Irishman had tried to sell them to Oswald, claiming that he found them. The same fellow had sold him a wrench, which he also claimed to have found. The butcher thought he was finding too many things for an honest man and fired him out, holding the shoes till he could find a policeman.

Obituary.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Anna R. Darnier were held at the house at 9 o'clock this morning, and were conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. W. Smith, of the Lutheran church, assisted by Rev. T. M. Whitney, of the Christian church, and Rev. Henry Tuckley, of St. Paul's. A large number of relatives and friends were present. As stated yesterday, the remains were taken to Maryland for interment, and were accompanied on the sad journey by the husband and son of the deceased.

Death of Dr. E. E. Loy.

J. Frank McGrew, Esq. of this city, received a dispatch at about two o'clock this afternoon stating that Dr. Elmer E. Loy, of Cincinnati, formerly of this city, and whose parents still reside here, died this morning. Dr. Loy is well known here. His death was quite sudden, although he had been in ill health for some time. He had just returned from a trip to St. Louis.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

D. H. Ackerson went to Wyoming, O., this noon.

Edwin Shivel returned this morning from New York.

Charles Saylor, of New Carlisle, is in the city on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Toulmin, of St. Paul, are spending today in town.

Regular meeting of W. R. C. at their hall Friday, Nov. 20, at 3 p. m.

Get your seats for Dan Sully's "Corner Grocery." Black's next Saturday.

E. R. Fuller, of Philadelphia, representing the Clinton & Co. brush manufactory, is in the city.

The W. J. Scanlon troupe left on the 10:46 train for Dayton this morning, via Plain Handle.

Miss Cora Eldridge, of Urbana, is the guest of Mrs. Samuel Martin, of South Factory street.

Linnie Cochran, son of Mr. A. P. Cochran, of South Limestone street, is recovering from his recent severe illness.

A valuable horse belonging to Joseph Sack, of East Columbia street, died very suddenly this morning from an unknown disease.

Matthew Sargent afternoon at 2 p. m. at the Grand, for ladies and children. Baker & Farrow will play their latest success—A Soap Bubble.

Friday evening, at the First Presbyterian church, you can get the finest supper for 50 cents you have had lately. Go, and take all your friends.

Mrs. Bernard, a lady living in this city, died in Bellefontaine yesterday, to which place she had gone to visit her daughter. The notice of the funeral will be given later.

A new automatic car, patented by Messrs. Moore and Frazer, is being tested in the East street yards this afternoon by the L. B. & W. people. It is highly spoken of.

Superintendent W. H. Van Tassel, of the L. B. & W., accompanied by his wife and son, returned last evening from Hot Springs, Arkansas, much improved in health.

Dani, Alt holds a big turkey shooting match next Tuesday at his farm four miles southeast of the city. A buck leaves Sack's gun store at 8:30 a. m. Fare round trip is 35 cents.

Christmas Presents. The ladies have prepared many useful and beautiful articles, suitable for holiday gifts, which will be sold at moderate prices, at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening.

The following are among the guests at the Arcade today: C. C. Reed, of New York; E. M. Rutledge, of Kenton, O.; E. G. Beach, of Chicago; J. B. Dray, of Toledo, and C. J. Supple, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hall and Dugan were yesterday appointed members of the board of pension examiners for this district, by the commission of pensions. The third member of the board is Dr. Elliott Myers, appointed a couple of months ago.

The management of the Grand Opera House announce that the prices of admission to the Minnie Madden performance, Thanksgiving night, will be 75, 50 and 25c, with no extra for reserved seats. The matinee prices will be 50c for adults and 25c for children.

Baker & Farrow will play their latest success, "A Soap Bubble," at the Grand tomorrow and Saturday, with a grand matinee Saturday afternoon for the ladies and children. This is one of the most laughable plays on the road, and no doubt will receive a good patronage while here.

The following are the names of those who desire to enter the polo club at the skating academy: Jim Todd, Will Hall, Ed. Jones, Harry Fitzman, Mr. Grapevine, Chas. Buckley and Frank Hutchins. All others who desire to form a club will please leave their names with any of the managers.

Percy Craig, the talented young artist, is working on a crayon sketch of the gas well. Among many well executed works he has recently finished is a fine crayon portrait of Mrs. Lida Smith, a very beautiful Columbian lady. The picture will be placed on exhibition at Williams' art store, and also at Columbus.

Young men! Attention! The young ladies all like flowers and candy. For moderate prices, you can get beautiful flowers, and the finest candy made, from Huyler's, of New York, and Gunthers, of Chicago, at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening. Go to get a supply of all, and make your lady friends happy.

One of the strongest evidences of more prosperous times among the laboring classes is the fact that the demand for better houses in which to live by this class is greater than it has been for a year. Those who rent are moving out of poor houses into better ones, and those who own their houses are repairing them where needed.

I. B. Trout, of Bethel school, Bethel township, has been compelled to abandon the school room on account of ill health. He resigned last week, and the school has been closed since last Friday. Mr. Trout holds a first-class certificate and has been recognized as one of the county's most successful teachers. For these reasons his community are very sorry to lose his services, and his co-laborers in the educational field hope that he may be speedily restored to good health.

Inquest Over Robert's Body.

At the coroner's inquest last evening five persons were examined, together with Drs. Baldwin and Dunlap. All the evidence went to show that the deceased had come to his death by attempting to slide a rail on the train. And that in getting off the train at Sycamore street, had lost his hold and slipping fell under the wheels. The coroner's verdict is in accordance with the evidence.

Scandal Sheet.

This morning August Oswald, the East Main street butcher, turned over to Oliver Wilson a pair of shoes, which he thinks were undoubtedly stolen. A young Irishman had tried to sell them to Oswald, claiming that he found them. The same fellow had sold him a wrench, which he also claimed to have found. The butcher thought he was finding too many things for an honest man and fired him out, holding the shoes till he could find a policeman.

Obituary.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Anna R. Darnier were held at the house at 9 o'clock this morning, and were conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. W. Smith, of the Lutheran church, assisted by Rev. T. M. Whitney, of the Christian church, and Rev. Henry Tuckley, of St. Paul's. A large number of relatives and friends were present. As stated yesterday, the remains were taken to Maryland for interment, and were accompanied on the sad journey by the husband and son of the deceased.

Death of Dr. E. E. Loy.

J. Frank McGrew, Esq. of this city, received a dispatch at about two o'clock this afternoon stating that Dr. Elmer E. Loy, of Cincinnati, formerly of this city, and whose parents still reside here, died this morning. Dr. Loy is well known here. His death was quite sudden, although he had been in ill health for some time. He had just returned from a trip to St. Louis.

SIMON'S TRUANT WIFE.

Turns Up at Richmond, Indiana, in an Unavoidable Role.

The following dispatch appeared in the Commercial Gazette this morning:

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 18. Yesterday a young woman, answering to the name of Mollie Reedy, involved the aid of the police in getting some articles of wearing apparel that she claimed were wrongfully held by Susie McDonald, a servant girl in the employ of William S. Reid, the well-known pork-packer, and thereby has been unearthed a fact that may make interesting reading for the Commercial Gazette subscribers at Springfield, O., who may also get a supplementary batch if the police realize on a clue they have thereby got to another party.

In this case they found that the accused, Susie McDonald, whose people also live near Springfield, had some of the Reedy girl's clothes, but she said she was holding them until the Reedy girl brought back some articles she had taken from her; and as Miss McDonald has proved herself an honest, industrious girl, the police not only believed her and dropped the matter, but began working on another matter upon the strength of Miss McDonald's story. She says she knew her as Mollie Reedy, daughter of William Reedy, who lives on a high street in Springfield, and is the head of a respectable family; that Mollie came to Reedy's to call on her, and Mrs. Reedy's son and daughter were given temporary employment; that on Wednesday evening of last week Mollie left, taking these things and saying she was going to visit an uncle, that the same night Susie, who was down street and met Mollie Simon, of Springfield, a worthy young man and a painter, who inquired after Mollie; that she told him she had been with her but had gone to visit her uncle; that he then told her he had no uncle here; that he had married her about nine months ago, and had three more children, but she had not told him that she had left her husband and went without reason, complaint or explanation, and he was there in quest of her, having got track of her at Dayton. After looking in vain for her for two or three days, he came home, and Susie kept the secret until Mollie thus drove it out of her. Suffice it to say that the whereabouts of Mollie in the meanwhile and her doings generally are not very complimentary to her.

The heroine of the above account, Mollie Reedy, was well known here as an attendant of the old Lottscholtz bath and a street walker. Young Reedy Simon, her betrothed husband, is a painter, employed by the St. John Sewing Machine Co., and is a quiet, steady young man. When she left him, three weeks ago, he set about to find her himself, with what success is above told. He was very adverse to having any publicity given to the affair and hoped to bring her back quietly. During their brief married career he treated her as well as possible, and they were apparently happy enough; but it is supposed that the quiet monotony of married life was too much for her, and a love of excitement caused her sudden departure.

REMARKABLY SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. E. C. Gwyn Dies in Two Minutes From Rheumatism of the Heart.

One of the saddest cases of sudden death was that of Mrs. Sarah Gwyn, wife of E. C. Gwyn, water works tender and superintendent, who died early this morning at her residence, No. 267 South Factory street. Mrs. Gwyn has been suffering more or less for two years with rheumatism in the chest, shoulders and arms, but has not been confined to her bed with it. Yesterday and last evening she was up and around, feeling no worse than usual. About half past four o'clock this morning she awoke, her husband asked her to get a drink of water. He went for her and after drinking it she lay down again, apparently refreshed. A couple of minutes later she gave a convulsive shudder, and Mr. Gwyn, thinking that she desired to attract his attention, asked her if he could do anything more for her. Receiving no answer, he touched her on the shoulder, but could not arouse her. A terrible fear seized him and he rushed to the telephone to summon medical assistance, and in the meantime tried to arouse his wife by clapping and working with her. By the time Dr. McLaughlin arrived the body was cold and lifeless. She had died in two minutes after taking the drink of water. The physician gave it as his opinion that her death had been caused by the rheumatic pain seizing the heart, invited thither perhaps by the drink of cold water. As may be imagined the young husband, thus suddenly bereft of all that was dear to him, was well nigh frantic with grief. He ceased was thirty-five years of age and leaves no children.

Scandal. The Favorite, Parks Black's Opera House, to overflowing.

If there was